You'll see all the main sights; Notre Dame Cathedral, the Louvre, Place de la Concorde, Champs Élysées, the Arc de Triomphe and the Eiffel Tower. Then embark on a relaxing River Seine cruise which concludes with a visit to the gilded Église du Dome to see Napoleon's tomb. The remainder of the day is at leisure in this most romantic of cities. There's plenty of time to stroll by the Seine, visit the impressionist paintings of the Musée d'Orsay, or enjoy a pleasant hour or two watching the passers-by from a Parisian café.(Buffet Breakfast)

Day3: PARIS AT LEISURE

There is certainly no shortage of things to do and see in this great capital city! Perhaps meet the enigmatic Mona Lisa in the Louvre? Ascend the Eiffel Tower by elevator, or the hill of Montmartre by mini-train, for superb panoramic views? Don't miss the chance for a shopping spree in the famous department stores or the elegant designer boutiques of the Left Bank. By night why not try one of the world famous cabaret shows, for an evening of excitement and glamour?(Buffet Breakfast)

Day4: PARIS – AVIGNON – NÎMES

Transfer to the Paris station to board a comfortable TGV train for a journey through fertile vineyards and agricultural lands to Provence. See the greatest of the Roman remains, the incredible three-tiered Pont du Gard, before arriving at the old Roman city of Nîmes. During your orientation tour, gaze up at the Roman Arena - you'll see it's more complete and better preserved than even Rome's Colosseum. You'll also see the 2,000 year old Maison Carrée, one of Europe's finest Roman temples. Now on to your hotel for dinner.(Buffet Breakfast / Dinner)

Day5: AVIGNON AND COTES DU RHONE

Journey to Avignon, with its medieval battlements and 39 towers. See the 'Pont d'Avignon', immortalised in song, then walk through the narrow streets to visit the Palace of the Popes, the biggest Gothic palace in the world. After some free time, head towards the Rhone river and the village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape to taste the renowned wine. À votre santé! Return to Nîmes this afternoon where you are at leisure. This evening perhaps take an optional excursion to the fortified town of Aigues Mortes, completely encircled by ramparts?(Buffet Breakfast)

Day6: EXCURSION TO ARLES

Spend the morning in Arles! Follow in the footsteps of Vincent Van Gogh on an orientation tour of this beautiful town. The Camargue begins at the gates of Arles and you return to Nîmes through part of this unique landscape.
