Itinerary

SPLENDOURS OF THE HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Day by Day

Day	Description
1	HONOLULU. Aloha and welcome to Hawaii! Upon arrival at Honolulu International Airport you will be greeted with a fresh flower lei and transferred to your hotel in Waikiki. Your Tour Director will be on hand to assist with check-in.
2	HONOLULU. Enjoy a full day at leisure. Your Tour Director will have suggestions, including activities near world famous Waikiki Beach or a full day optional outing to the Polynesian Cultural Centre on the island's north shore, where you'll enjoy a dinner buffet and the colourful "Horizons" stage show.
3	HONOLULU. This morning, your sightseeing excursion features the sunken USS ARIZONA and its impressive memorial to the men still entombed there, Punchbowl National Cemetery, and Honolulu Lookout. Other sights include bustling Chinatown, 'Iolani Palace, and the Kamehameha Statue. The afternoon is free for independent activities. Tonight, join the optional sunset dinner cruise along the shores of Waikiki.

4*HONOLULU.

One last day to enjoy Waikiki, the world's most famous beach. Your Tour Director has ideas to make your day memorable.

---

5*HONOLULU - KAUAI.

Morning transfer to Honolulu Airport for the flight to the "Garden Isle" of Kauai. Then, drive along the scenic southern shore via Poipu Beach to Waimea, once the Polynesian capital of Kauai and the site where Captain Cook landed on the islands in 1778. Sightseeing highlights include WAIMEA CANYON, known as the "Grand Canyon of the Pacific," the lush and fertile Hanapepe Valley, and a photo stop at SPOUTING HORN, a dramatic blowhole on the ocean's edge. Later, arrive at your oceanside hotel in Kapa'a.

6*KAUAI.

Kauai has a lot to offer, and your Tour Director will suggest several optional outings for the duration of your stay, including a trip to Hanalei Bay, the filming location of many Hollywood movies, such as South Pacific and The Thornbirds. Other activities include helicopter flightseeing and snorkeling on the Na Pali coastline.

7*KAUAI - KONA.

An afternoon arrival in Kona. Transfer to your hotel on the sunny side of the "Big Island." Tonight, attend a LUAU feast, considered one of Hawaii's best. After dinner, sit back and watch a captivating international revue of dancers and musicians. (D)

---

8*KONA.

Today tour HAWAII VOLCANOES NATIONAL PARK. See Kilauea Crater, rising 4,090 feet above a volcanic wonderland of steaming fire pits, lava tubes, and fern forests. Stroll along the serene beaches of Kohala, Hawaii. The evening is free for independent exploration and activities.

9*KONA.

Today you may choose to take in the breathtaking views of the Pacific while you relax on the decks of your resort's oceanfront split-level swimming pool or at the private beach and saltwater swimming lagoon. For an unforgettable adventure, join the afternoon optional to the summit of Mauna Kea Crater (13,796 ft.) to view the sunset, then visit the Ellison Onizuka Visitor Center (9,200 ft.) to stargaze in the evening.

10*KONA - MAUI.

This morning, fly to Maui, the "Valley Island". On arrival, sightseeing begins with a visit to the 'IAO VALLEY, the "Yosemite of the Pacific", to view the 'Iao Needle. Then, through lush farm country and along the shoreline via Maalaea Boat Harbor to Lahaina, once a whaling centre and capital of the Hawaiian monarchy. Free time to explore this colourful town.

11*MAUI.

A full day at leisure to enjoy Maui's splendid beaches or to relax by the pool at the hotel. There is a variety of optional outings, including the Road to Hana, one of the world's most spectacular scenic drives with 54 bridges and many waterfalls. You may want to take in the Maui Ocean Centre, a state-of-the-art aquarium and marine park that showcases indigenous marine life. From January to mid-April, whale watching is offered.

12*MAUI. HALEAKALA NATIONAL

This morning is dedicated to HALEAKALA NATIONAL PARK, the volcano known to islanders as the "House of the Sun", and its vast Haleakala Crater. The parkland is located in a setting of stunning natural beauty, ranging from a landscape of cinder cones to dense rainforest. Return to Kihei in the early afternoon with the balance of the day at leisure.

13*MAUI.

The trip ends today with guests departing on individual schedules.

USD

Name:FERN GROTTTO TOUR

Location:KAUAI

Details:The Fern Grotto, accessible only by a short boat trip up the Wailua River, is one of Kauai's signature attractions. Here you will enter a cave cloaked with ferns and cooled by the mists of a waterfall. There was a time when the Grotto was off-limits to all but Hawaiian royalty. But for more than 50 years, riverboats have provided tours of the site. The trip up this historic and sacred Kauai river takes about 40 minutes via a long flat bottom riverboat. Kauai's Wailua River is the only navigable river in Hawaii and, along with the cruise boats, kayakers, motor boats and water skiers "go with the flow". On the way to the Fern Grotto, you will encounter numerous photo opportunities of Kauai's tropical grasslands lining the river and cloud-capped Mt. Waialeale looming in the background.

170
USD

Name:NA PALI SCENIC SAIL WITH TRANSPORTATION

Location:KAUAI

Details:The Na Pali Coast is considered the jewel of Kauai. It's definitely not to be missed. Unfortunately, there's no road to get there. The best way to see all of the Na Pali Coast's cascading waterfalls, white sand beaches, sea caves and arches, and fluted cliffs is by water on this 3.5 hour scenic sail.
